philadelphia weekly

Dance

KUN-YANG LIN / DANCERS PRESENTS THREE WORLD PREMIERES & A REVISED WORK AT PRINCE THEATER, APRIL 14-16

April 14, 2016 @ 8 p.m.

Hailed for its superbly trained dancers and inventive choreography, the internationally-active, Philadelphia-based KYL/D presents four Philadelphia performances of virtuosic dancing that stirs the soul. KYLD unveils three world premieres born of a collaboration with composer Daniel Rhode, commissioned by the New Music Ensemble of Grand Valley State University. The concert also features a bold revision of KYLD's acclaimed work, "Autumn Skin." Renowned violinist, Todd Reynolds, one of the founding fathers of the hybrid-musician movement and co-founder of the quartet, Ethel, will perform with KYLD on Saturday evening, April 16.

Location: Prince Theater

1412 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, 19102

Age range: All ages

Links

More Information

Ticket Information